COMMITTED

TO the jail of Warren county, by Simeon L. George, a Justice of the Peace in and for said county, a runaway negro man, who says his name is ANDREW JACKSON, and that he belongs to one Joseph Acklin, of the State of Louisiana. Said boy is about 20 years old, black complexion, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, has one small scar on his chin, occasioned by being kicked by a mule. The boy says that the said Joseph Acklin married a certain Mrs. Franklin, who owns a plantation near the mouth of Red River, Louisiana.
